Developing Your 4-H Story

Introduction: (Don’t forget a firm handshake and eye contact)

I am ________________________, a 4-H member from __________________ County.

What is 4-H: 4-H is a youth development organization that is a part of the University of Illinois Extension. It teaches youth about:

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

YOUR 4-H STORY:

Four key points I want to make...

✓ WHY this experience was important (projects, trips, leadership opportunities, etc.)
✓ HOW this made a difference in my life
✓ WHAT is different for me now because of my 4-H experience
✓ FUTURE expectations and/or plans I have because of my 4-H experience.

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
Please submit to this folder by 3/15.
We will return these to you prior to the next Legislative Connection as a refresher!