4-H Youth Behavior Guidelines: All youth who participate in Illinois 4-H Youth Development programs, which are planned, conducted, and supervised by University of Illinois Extension, are responsible for their own conduct. Youth participating in 4-H programs are expected to demonstrate the character traits of trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. Specifically, 4-H youth are expected to abide by the following behavior guidelines:

1. Be courteous and respect others.
2. Obey all the laws of the locality, state, and nation and University of Illinois Extension policies and guideline as well as 4-H Program Guidelines and those of the local club.
3. Treat all people fairly and animals humanely.
4. Respect the property of others.
5. Respect the authority of adult or youth volunteers, paid Extension staff, and others in leadership roles.
6. Use appropriate language and wear acceptable clothing at 4-H activities and events.
7. Show kindness to others and give assistance when needed.
8. Be honest and honor commitments.
10. Accept responsibility for personal choices.

We understand and accept the responsibility for following the 4-H Youth Behavior Guidelines. We further understand that failure to do so may result in disciplinary action and forfeiture of participation privileges.

University of Illinois Extension Liability Waiver

I hereby acknowledge that participation in 4-H and related Extension activities involves an inherent risk of physical injury or loss that might be sustained by my child. In consideration for accepting my child into 4-H, I assume all risk of injury and loss that may be suffered by me or my child and release and forever discharge the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois, its officers, employees and agents from any and all known liability of whatever kind or nature, arising from and by reason of any and all known and unknown, foreseen and unforeseen body and personal injuries, including death, property damage and the consequences therefore resulting from the registrant’s participation in or involvement with 4-H or presence on University property, including any failure of equipment or defect in the premises, except to the extent caused solely by the willful and wanton misconduct of the University.
