Changes/Notices Regarding the 2018 Illinois State Fair Animal Exhibits

Note: This list is only a NOTICE of changes that have been made regarding various animal exhibits at the State Fair. Local Extension staff, Vocational Agriculture instructors, and exhibitors and their families should read complete rules and regulations included in the 2018 ISF Jr. Department Premium book once printed copies are received or the book is posted on the ISF website: http://www.illinoisstatefair.info/.

Quality Assurance & Ethics Certification is mandatory for livestock project enrollment and subsequent 4-H exhibition. The website is now open. All State Fair beef, dog, sheep, swine, horse, dairy, meat goat, poultry, and rabbit exhibitors must complete QA&E Certification via this site one time during their showing career. Those that have completed it in the past do not have to complete it again.

Horses – Ownership, Lease papers, photos, and Entries are to be sent in together directly to: Donna Miller at the Illinois State Fair by June 1 for verification of State Fair entries. If units wish to keep copies of this information for their own shows, they should make photocopies or require the exhibitors to submit two sets of forms.

All junior exhibitors will need to pay entry fees for any/all animals entered. Fees will be due with class entries – June 1 for Horses; July 1 for all other livestock. Fees are allocated as follows:

- Beef, Dairy, Horses -- $10 per head
- Sheep, Swine, Goats -- $5.00 per head
- Poultry, Rabbits -- $1 per head

Premises Identification numbers will be required for all Junior Department Barrow entries to the Illinois State Fair. This is required by most packing house(s). Even though the State Fair show is no longer a terminal show, a majority of exhibitors still have to eventually ship their animals from State Fair to the packing house for processing and Premises ID will be required.

Beef – Major change –

ALL Steers must be weighed, tattooed and tagged during the January 27 - March 15, 2018 dates noted. Market Heifers will be processed and nominated identical to steers in 2018. Note the Market Heifer show will be discontinued in 2019.
