May is Asian Pacific Islander Heritage Month! This month is a celebration of Asians and Pacific Islanders in the United States and their heritage, traditions, culture, and achievements. Are you ready to take the challenge and complete an AAPI activity each day in May in this state-level Experience awards-eligible activity?

ASIANAMERICAN HERITAGE PACIFIC ISLANDER MONTH 3 0 D A Y S O F S P A R K S

Illinois Extension

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
	Research Asian grocery stores in your area. If possible, plan a visit!	Visit a local Asian restaurant - write a review of the food you tried and share your review with your club or school.	Practice your chopsticks skills! Just starting? Try picking up and stacking marshmallows.	4 Pick a book written by an AAPI author to read.	Research a figure from AAPI history. Learn 5 things about their life and story.	Research the countries included in the AAPI celebration - pick one in Asia you'd like to travel to and make a wishlist of places to visit in the country!
7 Learn about tradition food options in the country you chose. What's one you woul like to try? Save you wishlist for an end o the month activity!	Research time! Learn about an AAPI inventor! What did they invent? How does that impact life today?	Make a poster celebrating AAPI month! Can you display it in your classroom or club?	10 Research and learn about China's national sport: jianzi. Extra challenge: play a game!	11 Learn 5 things about AAPI Month	12 Watch a movie from AAPI culture.  Write a movie review.	Research the countries included in the AAPI celebration - pick one in the Pacific Islands you'd like to travel to and make a wishlist of places to visit in the country!
Learn about tradition Pacific Island food options. What's one y would like to try? Sav your wishlist for an er of the month activity	chopsticks skills! Next challenge? Try picking e up small candies like d M&Ms	16 Interview a member of the AAPI community. What did you learn through your conversation?	Practice your public speaking! Share the 5 things about AAPI Month with a club, class, or group	Research time! Learn about an AAPI scientist! How does what they have researched impact life today?	Make a piece of art inspired by someone you've researched this month. Will you sketch, paint, or something else?	Draw a traditional costume from an AAPI culture.
Visit an AAPI cultura exhibit in person or online. Write a review of a piece that inspire you!	H. This Japanese poem style is three lines with	Share a report on your travel itinerary on one of the countries you chose. Share it with a group or your club! What visual aids could you prepare? What languages will you need to speak?	What careers might take you to Asia or the Pacific Islands? Do any match	chopstick	Practice writing the days of the week in characters from an Asian language. Ask for resources at your local library.	27 Prepare your recipe from 5/7 & 5/14 for your family or club! What did you learn as you made this?
Origami is the ancient art of paper folding. Learn to make an origami figure!	Go is a game invented in China over 2,500 years ago and still in play today. Learn to play Go!	Learn about an Asian artist (author, musician, actor, etc.), either from today or the past. How does their work inspire you?	Take a picture of you with your completed calendar and an activity you did: go.illinois.edu/AAPIActivity Remember to include this in your Experience Award application in the fall	Take a picture of you with your completed calendar and an activity you did and submit it to: go.illinois.edu/HeritageMonthActivity or scan the code on the right to submit.  Remember to include this in your Experience Award application as a state level experience.		